

Fernbank

Luxury Residential Home

About Fernbank

Fernbank is an exceptionally attractive and well-appointed residence for retired ladies and gentleman, located in the fishing seaside town of Worthing. The home is within a few minutes of the seafront and promenade with far reaching views across the English Channel and the Sussex coastline.

Local bus routes and the train station are also within walking distance. Fernbank is designed to care for those who wish to be in comfortable, pleasant surroundings with like-minded company and social environments. The home assures high quality cuisine and the attendance of helpful and caring staff during the day and night.

Fernbank boasts a stunning and substantial new extension completed in Spring 2017. The new building has increased the number of rooms to 46 as well as adding a spacious dining room with air conditioning. Luxurious communal lounges and activity room, a patio and herb garden and very popular modern hair dressing salon were all included in the extended home.

Most bedrooms are en-suite and are beautifully decorated and furnished. Each room has a plasma TV, WiFi and a free private telephone. The catering team produce excellent meals and afternoon teas to delight any discerning palate.

A home from home experience.
I have the comfort of knowing
there is care and support
twenty-four hours a day.

The Care

The care that Fernbank provides is based on each individual's needs, promoting independence or alternatively helping and supporting a full and contented lifestyle. Carers and health specialists in the home are well trained and experienced.

Each resident at Fernbank along with their friends and families plan the care that they prefer and this is documented using an electronic care plan and care provided recording system.

Fernbank has been in the South Coast Nursing Homes group of care homes for over 35 years and is a well reputed and desirable residence.

“My mother who is now 83 is not able to care for herself as well as she has in the past. I needed a home that was light, airy, warm with great food, lots going on, a fun place to be, beautifully clean and with lovely attentive staff! Fernbank not only ticks all the boxes but it is close to the town station and particularly the wonderful seaside, so its the perfect place.”
